

Salary Sacrifice

Enhance your Flexible Benefits package

KiNTO's salary sacrifice scheme is a great benefit, best suited to low CO₂ cars, with the cost of the car being deducted from the employee's gross salary, resulting in Tax and National Insurance (NI) savings.

Salary sacrifice is well-known for allowing employees to trade an element of their salary for a new car, bringing all of the benefits normally reserved for company car drivers.

For employers, it's a great addition to your existing benefits package, offers minimal risk and administration, has comprehensive online reporting, comes with early termination and gap insurance options and offers potential NI savings.

For drivers, they not only enjoy a fully maintained lease car managed by our expert teams, there is a simple online 'employee journey' to join the scheme with motor insurance, and it is open to extended family members allowing multiple orders from employees.

With no credit check, fully comprehensive private and business insurance, and all servicing, breakdown and accident management taken care of by KiNTO - all your employees need to worry about is adding fuel.
